December 2025

But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name John 1:12a

Christmas is already upon us. It seems like just yesterday we were celebrating Independence Day. We have so much to do before our next trip and are quickly running out of time.

We will return to Thailand for our next mission trip on January 1, 2026 and will return to the United States March 2. We have spent the past several months preparing for this trip during which we'll be teaching Creation Week. The logistics and planning that go into these trips are daunting.

We (Tim & Tina) have daily planning meetings to plug the various schools into the dates in January and February. Incredibly, our schedule for January is already full.

We use a computer application that allows us to locate our schools through a satellite mapping system. One day Tim was searching for a school that we were going to get into. He came across a different school, which appeared very small and very poor. We later mentioned this school to our niece, Aum, who is training to become a teacher in the area. Aum told us that she knew a teacher at this new school and that she would get in touch with her. She also said that the principal there is very nice. It was later the next day that we received a call from the principal.

The principal told Tina, "Oh you guys are a godsend. I'm so happy and thankful that you guys found us" she said. She went on, "Our school is so small and poor so we get overlooked and we have nothing. I'm so ready for you guys to come now. Please come. I have a lot of meetings, but I want to be there to greet you guys. It would be such a blessing if you could come for children's day." When we told her what we were going to bring for the children she replied, "You guys are going to feed us too? And backpacks for the children too? Wow! Can you guys come to us more than one day? I haven't met your team yet, but I'm so happy now." This principal then gave Tina information about yet another school in the area.

Tina called the principal for this new school who asked, "How much do you charge? It seems that it will be expensive for native English teachers." Tina replied, "No, we don't charge anything; we do this for free. We do this out of love." The principal was surprised and exclaimed, "Oh, really? Thank you so much, for the children! Yes, welcome, welcome anytime."

During this same time of planning we received a call from the principal of one of our schools from our last trip. He told Tina that his wife works at a different school than him and she told him that we were coming in January and that he'd better call us to get us in to his school. He said, "You're more than welcome to come back. I'm so happy that you didn't forget about our school. Yes, yes please come back. Any day that you want to come at your convenience.

We will adjust our schedule to accommodate you."

Part of planning this trip is sending funds to Thailand so that many of our supplies are purchased prior to our arrival. With your support, we have purchased 4,000 Gospel tracts and the supplies for the lunches that we will provide for the schools. Many of you have donated reading glasses, socks, backpacks, and other items that we will take from America to Thailand. Thank you! This ministry does not happen without YOU, our financial and prayer partners.

"Teacher Tim and teacher Ranu (Tina) have to go back to America to work and make (to find) money to come back and build a building for English class for us."

-Harley, 8-year-old boy from English class to his mom

"Oh you guys are a godsend. I'm so happy and thankful that you guys found us."

-Principal at new, small, impoverished school

We have continued to have live, online English classes since we returned earlier this year so that our children don't lose what we have taught them. We average about 15 children in attendance. These classes are facilitated by our brother in Christ, Ping. We are almost done going through the Operation Christmas Child (OCC) discipleship program, The Greatest Journey. We will finish the final lesson in January when we are there. We will also distribute shoe boxes from OCC. Wouldn't it be something if one of our children received a shoe box that YOU packed? Three of our children memorized the memory verses from the first six lessons of The Greatest Journey.

We have two new helpers for Saturday English classes. Our niece, Aum and her friend, Fang. Both girls are 25 years old. Both are studying to become teachers. Both are Buddhist. Both girls are reading the scriptures to our children. They also study the designated scripture for the week in preparation for our next class. Please pray for them that God's Word will fill their hearts and that they would want to know Jesus in a personal way.

We continue to raise funds for our building project. We are praying and believing that 2026 is the year that God provides and allows us to begin construction on the building that 8-year-old Harley and the other children so eagerly await.

Please pray for Thailand as there has been massive flooding in the entire country. Thankfully, our villages have not been flooded. Unfortunately, Ping's house in another province flooded three times.

Future Multi-purpose Building

Also, the armed conflict between Thailand and Cambodia has flared back up with Thailand sending more combat troops to the border. We pray that the two countries cease hostilities and stop fighting.

Praise report (answered prayer):

- God has raised more than $80,000 towards the goal of $150,000 for the multi-purpose building project.
- We received 40 Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes for distribution during our upcoming trip.
- We welcomed two female helpers, Aum & Fang, to help Ping during our Saturday classes.

Prayer needs:

- For the children to come to a salvation understanding of who Jesus is through The Greatest Journey.
- Protection for everyone involved in teaching and for the enemy to be bound.
- For the raising of funds for the first part of Phase I of property development, which is the multi-purpose building at a cost of $150,000.
- For our mission trip for January and February 2026
- More donors to partner with us financially.
- For peace between Thailand and Cambodia to return.
